By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our Parliament ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Eleventh Day of this Inſtant November, We, with the Advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publiſh and declare, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall be further prorogued, on the ſaid Eleventh Day of November, to Thurſday the Fifteenth Day of January next enſuing; and We have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to prepare a Commiſſion for proroguing the ſame accordingly: And We do hereby further declare our Royal Will and Pleaſure, That the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid Fifteenth Day of January next, be held and ſit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Weſtminſter, on the ſaid Fifteenth Day of January next.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Sixth Day of November, in the Ninth Year of our Reign.

GOD Save the King.

Hague, Nov. 18, N. S. Letters from the Rhine adviſe, that the Troops on both Sides were marching into Winter Quarters, purſuant to the Agreement for a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities. Twenty four Battallions and Twenty eight Squadrons, of the Imperialiſts commanded by Count Seckendorff, are coming to quarter in the Auſtrian Netherlands; Thirty nine Squadrons of Horſe and Eleven of Huſſars are to quarter in the Country of Liege; and in the Countries of Cologne, Bergue and Juliers, Thirteen Battallions and Twenty four Squadrons are to be quartered. The States of the Province of Holland are ſtill Sitting, and this Day came to a Reſolution to raiſe ſome Millions for the Preſent publick Service by way of a Lottery and of Annuities for Life; the Scheme of which will ſhortly be publiſhed. Yeſterday the States General paſſed a Reſolution to allow for the future an annual Subſiſtance to their Sea Officers who are not actually employ'd, viz. 800 Guilders to a Captain, and a proportionable Pay to the inferior Officers; a Matter which has been ſollicited a long Time. M. de Catwyck, who was lately preferred by the Prince of Orange to the Office of Droſſard of Breda, died a few Days ago, for which Place there are ſeveral Candidates. The Prince, with his Conſort the Princeſs Royal, are expected here To-morrow.

Dublin, November 3.

On the good News of His Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in Great Britain, this Day the Flag was diſplayed at the Caſtle, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green; and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Ringing of Bells, and other Demonſtrations of Joy.
